38TH YEAR—NUMBER 34

Seeding is Here or Over?

This means much in the way to us one and all and the hopes and plans we make.

To get the best results we must make a good seed bed. Give this seed bed our best thought and effort.

What about your seed time in your money matters? Have you made your seed bed?

Think about it, work over it and let us help you and we can look for the harvest with good cheer.

Come in and see us.

NOAH—EATON

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday evening October 10th at 8 o'clock when Mr. Virgil Eaton and Miss Nellie Noah were united in marriage by Rev. Davis at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Noah. The rooms were beautifully decorated in green and white. The flowers used were white chrysanthemums and red roses. As Mendelsohn's wedding march was played by Miss Elizabeth Richmond the bridal party marched in and took their places under a white arch with a background of flowers where the marriage ceremony was performed. The bride was attended by her sister Miss Verna Noah and the bridegroom by his brother Mr. Byron Eaton. The bride was dressed in white chiffon taffeta and silver lace with a silk illusion veil and carried white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid was dressed in blue crepe de chene and carried red roses. Congratulations were given them by fifty-six relatives and friends who were present. Many useful and valuable presents were received. The guests were then served to a three course supper after which they departed to their various homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. Eaton a long and prosperous life. The bride is an accomplished and popular young lady who has been a successful Graham county teacher. The bridegroom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Eaton and a worthy young farmer of Trego county. Both have a host of friends who wish them a happy journey down life's pathway together.

CRUSON—MIXER

On Wednesday evening, October 11th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Cruson, occurred the marriage of their only daughter, Alice, to Mr. Adelbert Mixer, of Ellis, Rev. J. A. Westerman of Ellis performed the ceremony, the ring ceremony being used. Mr. Clare Cruson, brother of the bride and Miss Faun Mixer, sister of the groom, acted as best man and lady. The bride wore white crepe de chine and the groom wore blue serge. Mrs. Westerman, Grandma Cruson and the two families being the only ones present. Several beautiful and useful presents were received. The happy couple left Thursday morning for a short visit with relatives and friends at Emporia and Ottawa after which they will be at home to their many friends at the home of the bride's parents.

THAT WORD LOYALTY

Let us consider that word loyalty—loyalty to the old home town. To be loyal is to be faithful to a friend, a cause or a principle. To be loyal is to be true. But, in business—in spending money—loyalty does not mean that you should buy something you do not want, or something you do not need. It does not mean that you should accept an article of inferior quality, or that you should pay two prices. It does not mean that you should trade with a merchant simply because he happens to be in business in your town. It does not mean that you should sell your labor or that which you produce for less than the market price. Loyalty means the golden rule—to do unto others as you would have others do unto you. It means to give your home merchant the first chance at your business—to give him a chance to fill your orders on the same terms the city concern offers. It means going to your neighbor and saying "Mr. Merchant, I am a resident of this community. I want to do all I can do to help the town, and if you can do as well by me as the city concern quality and price considered, I am going to give you my patronage." When you have done this, you have done your part. That's business loyalty—loyalty in the strict meaning of the word. But—usually—the loyal citizen does not stop merely at giving the home merchant a chance at his business. He gives the word loyalty a broader meaning. He takes a general interest in his neighbors—in their social life. He belongs to a lodge or two—he is in the church—and he has a finger in every good thing that is proposed to make his home town a better town. He is broad, generous, open hearted. And, he possesses these splendid qualities because he is loyal.

EATON—NOAH

Charming in its simplicity was the wedding solemnized Thursday evening, October 12th, at the home of the parents of the bride Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Eaton, when Lois May and Ray O. Noah were united in marriage, the Rev. Davis, pastor of the M. E. church of Palco, officiating. The bride was lovely in a frock of white chiffon taffeta and silver lace and was attended by her cousin from Ogallah, Miss Nova Marquand. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Mr. Roy Noah. The rooms had been tastefully decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being pink and white. To the strains of Mendelsohn's wedding march played by Miss Elizabeth Richmond the bridal party entered and took their places in front of the bay window which had been effectively draped and decorated. A tempting little wedding supper served to thirty-nine relatives and friends followed the ceremony. Many useful and valuable wedding presents were received. The bride is a charming young woman with a host of friends. She is an earnest church worker and takes a prominent part in all social affairs. The bridegroom shares the popularity of the bride and is a successful young farmer of Graham county. Mr. and Mrs. Noah accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Eaton left for Colorado, Friday, October 13th, where they will spend the greater part of their honeymoon. The young couple have many friends who wish them a happy and prosperous voyage through life.

MARKET REPORT

Kansas City Stock Yards, October 17.—Cattle receipts overran the estimates yesterday, and there is a liberal supply today 23,000 head. Best killing cattle firm, medium to common weak, stockers and feeders steady to 15 lower. The run this week is highly mixed, a typical October clean up, but containing some high grade range yearlings and twos. Beef Cattle—Prime finished yearlings sold at $10.25 to $10.70, the latter branded S M S. Missouri yearlings at $10.25 were from a feed lot that has furnished the same type each Tuesday for four consecutive weeks, and selling within a range of ten cents, $10.25 to $10.35. Good grass cattle are scarce, but get feeder competition if desirable, up to $8.60. Bulk of the grassers are medium to common, at $7.50 downwards to $6. Oklahoma loaded lightly for today, account of car shortage, Colorado sent a heavy run, a train of fair to good 1040 lb. beef steers at $8.55 straight. Cows sell pretty well, canners $5.50 to $4.90, thin cows $5.25 to $5.50, fair to good $5.80 to $6.50, good Colorado grass cows $6.25 to $7. Veal calves are lower, best $10.50.

Stockers and Feeders—Iowa men bought 1275 lb. feeders at $8.50 and $8.60, very scarce, and as high as any recent time. A Missouri man bought 182 horned Colorado weighing 996 at $7.10. Two thousand highly bred Panhandle yearlings sold in various lots at $7 to $7.35, one lot at $7.65, others around $6.65. These looked reasonable in connection with the finished yearlings, branded today at $10.25 to $10.70. Choice Colorado yearlings brought $7.50, short twos $7. In the common kinds, $5.50 to $6.50 buys very useful cattle. Stock cows and heifers bring $4.90 to $7.

Hogs—A 5 cent higher market developed into a scramble for hogs at 10 to 15 higher, receipts 15,000. Packers laid aside all reserve, and went out after the best hogs, paying up to the top, $9.95. Bulk of sales ranged from $9.50 to $9.90. Failure of packers to make declines stick should encourage feeding for the winter market, although Kansas feeders will have to figure out a profit on corn at a dollar a bushel before they will feed many hogs this year. Immense demand, small stock of provisions, and probably scarcity of hogs during the winter make futures look good for feeders.

Sheep and Lambs—Prices were lower, but quality in lambs was better, and the top was unchanged, $10.30. Aged sheep were steady, best fat ewes around $7.25, heavy yearlings $8.25. Feeding lambs are slightly higher than the low spot late last week, good ones today at $9.50 to $9.65. Feeding ewes sell at $5 to $6.50, breeders $7 to $9.25. Receipts are 14,000 today, and promise to be liberal balance of this week.

THE VALUE OF A WATCH

Is determined by the kind of material put in it, the kind of workmanship put on it and how closely adjusted. The better the material, the better the workman ship and the closer adjusted, the nicer, the stronger and the more accurate the watch.

I have America's best watches. They are of the finest material, of the finest workmanship and adjusted to keep time in heat, cold and in different positions.

REPORT OF HIGH SCHOOL

Wa-Keeney, Kan., April 16, 1916.
To the Honorable Board of Trustees of Trego County High School:

Gentlemen:

Agreeable to your regulations I herewith present a report of enrollment, attendance and such other matters as will be of interest to you.

	Post Graduates	Seniors	Juniors	Sophomores	Freshman	Total
Enrollment	2	21	37	37	37	134
H. D. Attended	39	802	1397	1432	1432	5103
H. D. Absent	1	38	88	28	28	167
Tardy	3	17	16	36	40	112
Neither absent nor tardy	1	5	12	14	14	46
Per cent of attendance	98.7	95.4	94.4	98.1	98.1	96.8

Our attendance is good. We have changed our hour of beginning to 8:30 and this has been the cause of the great number of tardies. Of our 134 enrolled for the first month 72.6-10 per cent are from the country. Thirty-three school districts of our county and every township are represented. A splendid interest is manifested. Our societies are organized and regular programs will be given each Thursday beginning October 26. Classes have been organized for work in Domestic Science and Art of 27 pupils; in Manual Training of 24 pupils; in Agriculture and in Normal Training, as well as in the regular college preparatory work. An orchestra and choruses are working faithfully. Every student will receive instruction in music and those whose voices permit will be used in choruses.

Our student's committee which assists the principal in getting the student viewpoint of all questions of discipline and school interest is composed of the president of each of the four classes, the presidents of the two societies, the president of the Athletic association, two students from each class chosen by the members of the class and one member of the faculty. The work of this committee has proven very valuable and helpful.

The several instructors, new and old, have brought a large supply of healthful enthusiasm to bear upon the work with very pleasing results.

Respectfully submitted,

J. H. NIESLEY.

THE SHEEP AND THE GOATS

Why should a Kansas congressman vote for a tariff bill that places a protective duty on the hair of the Angora goat, a Texas product, while the wool of the Kansas sheep is placed on the free list?

And why should the same congressman stand up for the peanut of North Carolina as against the potato of Kansas? Why did they vote to protect the peanut with a tariff duty and put potatoes on the free list? Was that done to cheapen the price of potatoes to the customer? Is there a housewife in Kansas who will testify that they are paying less for potatoes than they did before the Democratic Underwood tariff law was passed? "The goats in this case are the Kansas farmers," remarked a well known farmer of Reno county, and the "peanuts" are the six Democratic congressmen who helped to put this so called tariff law over. Here is the list: Taggart, Doolittle, Helyering, Connelly, Shouse and Ayers. When they stand up before an audience to plead for re-election, ask them to explain their votes in congress that put a duty on goats' hair and peanuts, and at the dictation of the Southern Democracy removed the duty from the wool of the sheep and from potatoes that grow on Kansas farms. And follow this up on November 7 with a ballot for Otis L. Benton for Congress.—Downs News.

For the benefit of those who did not take time to work the puzzle advertised by the Wa-Keeney Music Company we submit the following handed us by Peter Mundloch:

20	13	18
15	17	19
16	21	14

Counts 51 every way.

4 3 8

Counts 15 every way.

C. W. MILLER FOR STATE SENATOR

C. W. Miller, candidate for senator from the 39th senatorial district, has been a resident of Ellis county for thirty years. Like many of the early settlers of this country Mr. Miller started with practically nothing but by honest, industrious and temperate habits he has become one of the prosperous citizens of that county. During his long residence there he has won the confidence and esteem of all and his life has been remarkably clean and worthy one. He is a man who has a fund of information having been a great reader and is well qualified to take the part in the affairs of state that this important position calls for. Let the voters stop and think and they will remember that it has been over twenty years since this part of the district has had a senator and we believe they will all agree that it is time this locality is being recognized, therefore let us rally to the support of Mr. Miller and give him a vote that will carry him safely into the position for which he is making the race and for which he is capable of filling so well—that of senator from the 39th district.

Last Wednesday morning Carol Kelly and Nell Ufford returned home after several months at the Mexican border. They were mustered out of Company M First Kansas Regiment at Fort Riley the first of the week. The boys were glad to be home once more and their friends were glad to see them again. They look very solidly in their U. S. A. khaki uniforms, but they say it takes more than a uniform to make a soldier especially the kind to fight the Mexicans.

KLING'S ANSWER VERY WEAK

Last week H. F. Kling comes out in a very weak evasive article and dodges the whole issue. He says the matter is based on a personal feeling on the part of the editor of this paper which is not the truth. Whatever feeling in a personal way exists this matter is based as we were careful to state before entirely and wholly on one issue and that is a political one—Republicanism. Kling would not take his stand and without it we refused to head our ticket with his name. He is just as good a Republican now as he was before he wrote last week's article which is not at all. He is against Hughes, Capper and Benton on good authority this is said of him. Our readers will notice that in his article he explains nothing and especially they will notice that he does not explain why he sold his paper to a Democrat on the eve of election or why he took no part in the Republican rally when O. L. Benton was here a few weeks ago. The people see through it plainly no matter what he says at heart he is not a Republican and is not giving the party his loyal support and never has.

WA-KEENEY PUBLIC LIBRARY

The Wa-Keeney Public Library in the court house on the second floor opposite the county superintendent's office is open every Saturday from 10 a. m. to 12 m. and from 2 to 6 p. m., and is free to everyone in the county. New books are being added to the library every two weeks both for adults and juveniles.

Don't fail to see "Molly" election night at the court house.
